

The public airwaves are meant for the good of the public, not the political agenda of a corporate media conglomerate. Sinclair media is violating the public trust, election laws, and the terms of their broadcasting license by airing political propoganda such as "Stolen Honor". This should not be allowed. Any stations that violate these rules should have their licenses revoked.

Thank you,
Jeffrey Foster